

Perspective in Art:

Watercolor Poppy Field

*A Hopewell Museum
Education Workshop*

Objectives

Students Will:

- Discuss symbols of remembrance, why we have symbols of remembrance, and how the poppy flower is a symbol of remembrance for WWI (this workshop best accompanies the exhibit, "The Great War: Kentucky & Beyond" on display Feb. 12-Oct. 1, 2017).
- Learn how perspective is used in landscape art to create depth.
- Observe how the elements of art & design are used in landscape examples.
- Create their own watercolor poppy field.
