Foreword

"When first we came to thee we knew so little
Of life, and what it holds for those who seek
To find their place within our scheme of living
To grow to manhood strong and brave, yet meek.
We were so young; we had no way of knowing
The opportunities that lay ahead,
But you, you took our hand and led us, showing
The distant fields that would be ours to tread
And so we take our leave, but at our going
Oh! May we life our grateful eyes to thee,
To voice a prayer that in us may keep growing
A loyalty that all the world may see."

---- J. T. G. ----

MR. J. T. GENTRY, Principal

Dedication

Down through the years your contributions to the culture and dignity of our Community have been legion. No Teacher can ever expect a greater reward for her services than to see in the lives of those with whom she has worked, an over-all enrichment that has been fostered by her labors. Your willingness to do your part in Community and school enterprises, your cheerful outlook on life in general, and your totally unselfish attitude toward others is a daily inspiration to each of us. Because of all these things, and because we love you, gratefully we dedicate this issue of the MIDDLETONIAN TO "MISS JO."

Now I'll Tell One

Mrs. Willis: "I'm sorry but I can't serve on the Committee. You know how I HATE to serve on a committee."

Mrs. Prather: You're awfully nice to ask me for a date, but I never did like men.

Mr. Denny: I can say without danger of contradiction that this has been ONE year the Glee Club never missed a rehearsal.

Mrs. Young: "I just love TEACHERS' PARTIES when we can all get together and have a rollicking good time."

Mrs. Pumphrey: Mr. Gentry, isn't there some way you can tell me how to put a little life in my classes? It's so quiet I can hardly stand it. Ya see what I mean?"

Mrs. Cross: "Martin is So nice about helping me with Steve."

Mr. Cross: "Mr. Gentry, if there are any little extra chores you can give me to do around the building I would certainly appreciate it."

Mr. Gentry: "I just can't understand why more people aren't interested in being a Principal. The work is pleasant, lucrative, and the only problems you have to wrestle with are your own."

Mrs. Varden: "I just can't understand why Teachers want to have RECESS. This is the ninth consecutive year I have taught and I have had an average of less than one recess period per week."

Mr. Bridges: "I wonder if it would be possible for the Teachers to be allowed to come to school a little earlier than at present. I am dressed and ready by seven o'clock every morning and can hardly wait to go across the road."

Miss Sudie: "I don't know why ANYBODY would waste their time with reedwork, bird study, etc., when there are so many more fascinating things to do at school."

Miss Henry: "Mr. Gentry, please promise me that I can be shifted to a higher grade next year so that I may not lose contact with Jeffry."

Miss Gillispie: "I'm not the least bit interested in getting wed. Teaching is much more intriguing."

Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors AND Seniors: "I wasn't doin' nuthin."

Oh! How Glad We Are to Get This Little Piece of Paper. We've Really Worked Hard for It.

To the Seniors:

Incline your hands to honest work, your mind to clear thinking, your heart to a true faith in God.

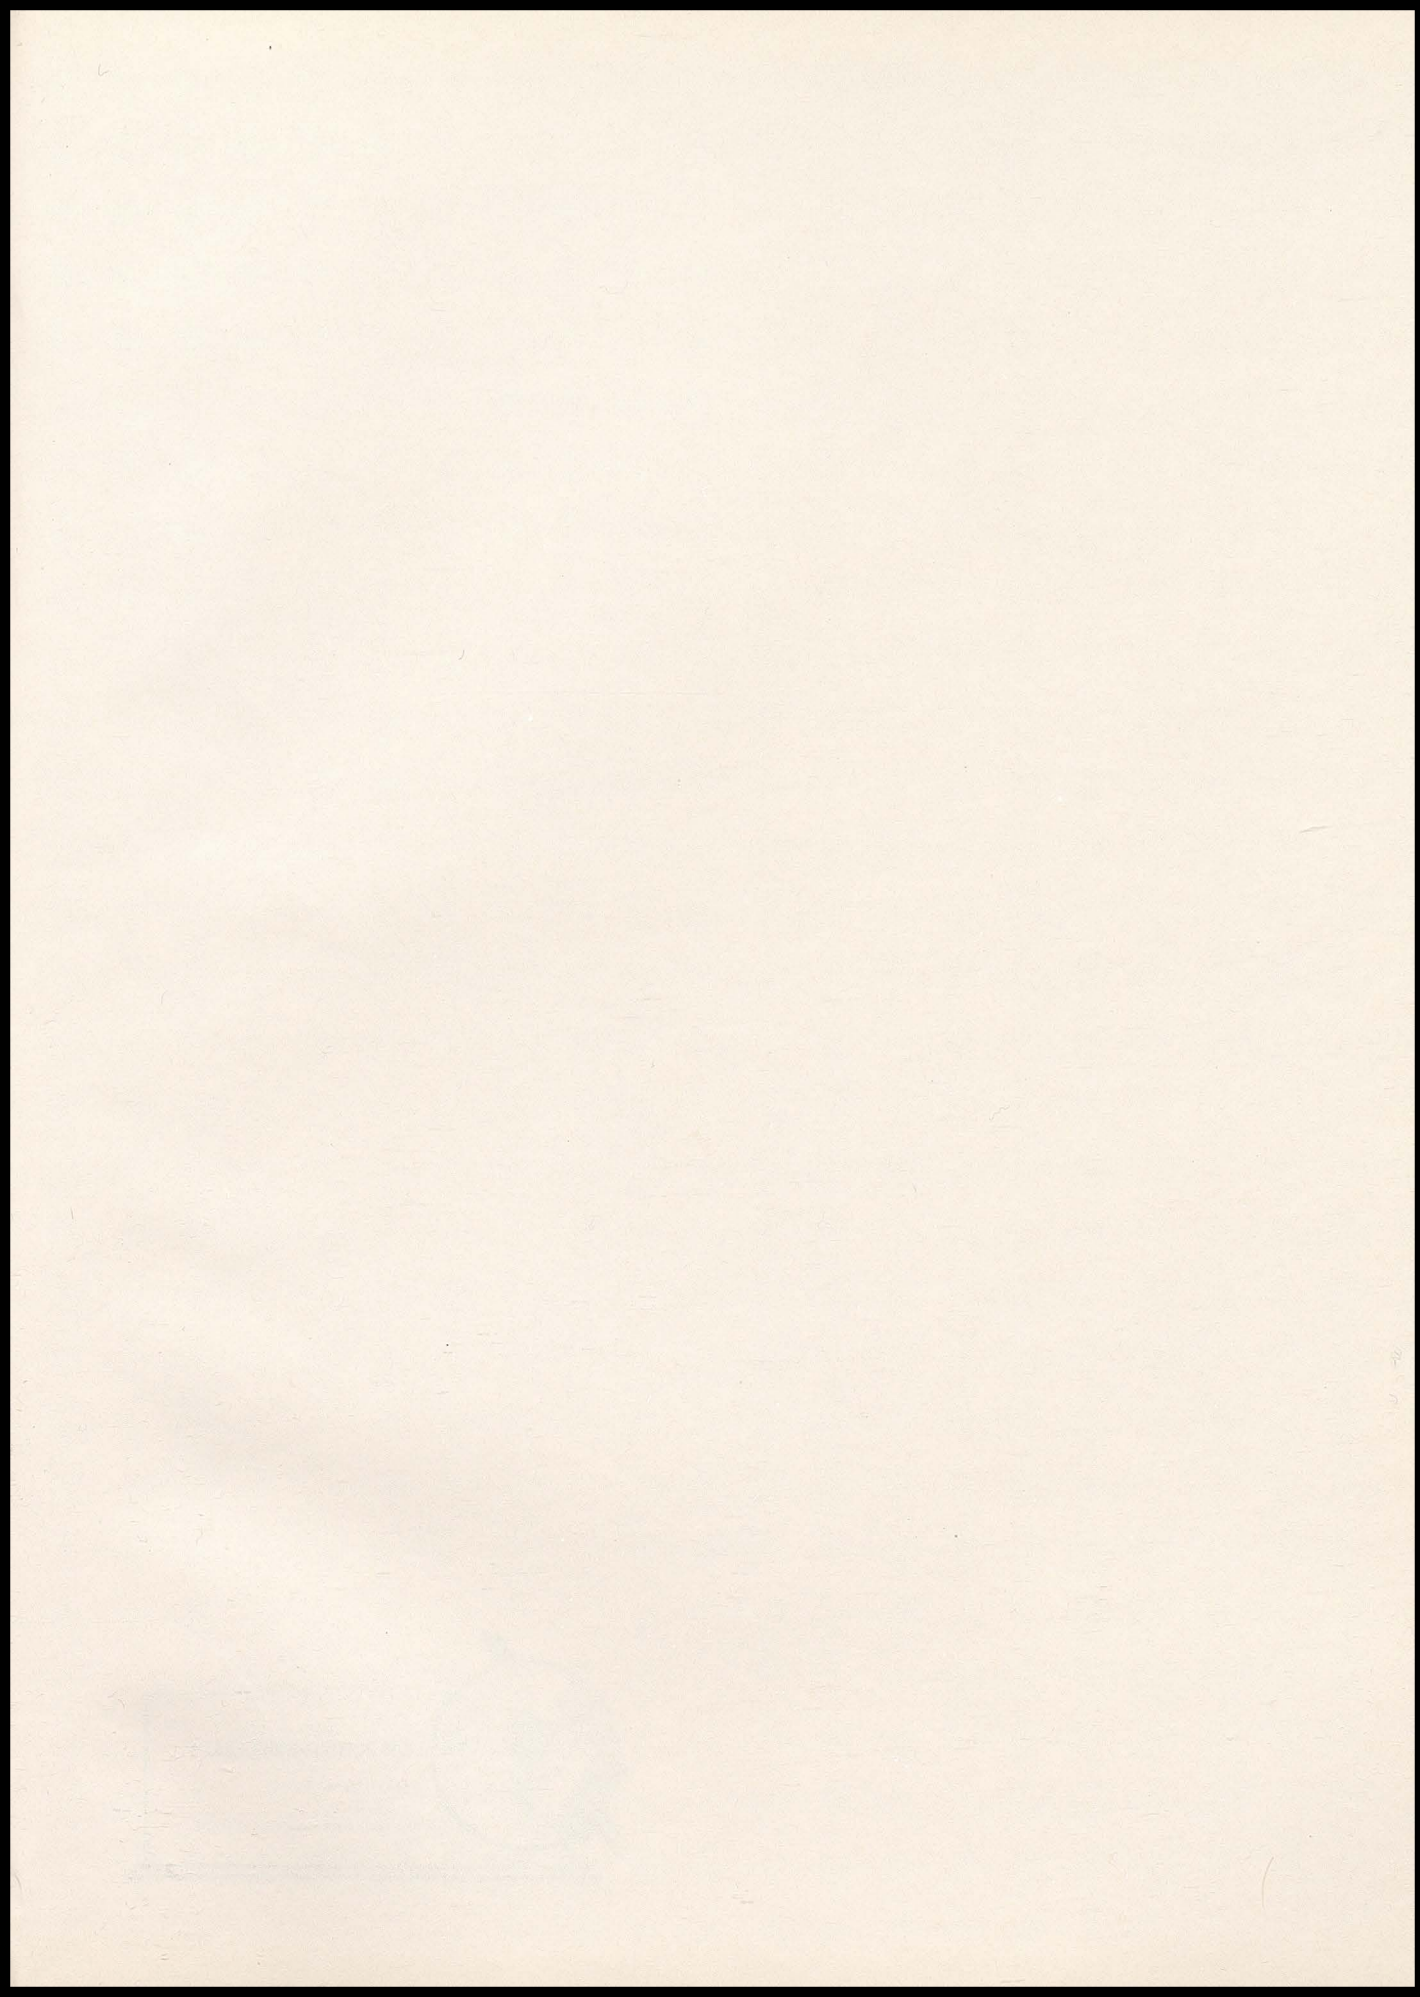

Plant firmly your feet, tread carefully lest you stumble and fall and the world falls with you.
